

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is very important to us here at The Body Consultants and we will always act to protect your information. We take this responsibility very seriously and are very careful about how and when your personal information is collected, used and shared.

Our privacy commitment

We will always ensure that we handle your personal information securely and carefully. Your personal information will only be used when it is necessary for us to deliver you a service or perform other essential business functions and activities.

Collection of information

The information that we collect may include:

- your name.
- your contact details, i.e. email, mobile and phone.
- credit card details for processing orders. No card details stored once your order is completed.

We collect information for many reasons including:

- to improve our service.
- to provide offers that are of a greater interest or benefit to you.
- to complete other transactions with you or on your behalf.
- to protect against fraud or theft.

The Body Consultants does not rent, exchange or intend selling your personal information to other parties.
